WHAT CAN CRICKET OFFER YOUR SCHOOL?

What can cricket offer your school?

2015 is an exciting year for Cricket in Wales as the Ashes will be played in Cardiff this July. The spotlight will be firmly on Wales when the first ball is bowled at the SWALEC Stadium in Cardiff on July 8th.

Glamorgan Cricket & Cricket Wales can help your school use the power of cricket to provide high quality PE, and improve numeracy and literacy.

Cricket can be played in various flexible formats and lends itself to developing the core multi-sports skills required for children to be physically literate. Additionally, there are various opportunities to use the global and inclusive nature of cricket to improve numeracy, literacy and contribute to other areas of the curriculum within your school.

"I knew nothing about cricket before the coach visited the school. The children really enjoyed the coaching sessions and I now have the confidence to deliver cricket activities & share my new found passion with the pupils"

Bethan Davies - Year 5 Teacher,
Ringland Primary School Newport

We can tailor a solution to meet your needs which could include:

HIGH QUALITY PE & SPORT

- Curricular & Extra-Curricular Coaching
- Access to relevant Competitions
- Teacher training & mentoring – giving you the confidence to deliver cricket sessions.
- Access to a physical literacy resource pack linked to the national PE curriculum
- Cricket club links

NUMERACY, LITERACY & CROSS CURRICULAR

- 'Ashes Partner Schools Project' – A competition in which schools can create a short Ashes themed film. The winning film will be played during the Ashes test.
- CricEd - An online cricket based educational portal containing lesson plans on numeracy, literacy, citizenship & geography.
- 'Watch & Write' – A literacy project based on a visit to the SWALEC Stadium to watch professional cricket.
- SWALEC Stadium Tour – A trip including Cricket Coaching & a lesson in the interactive, award winning CC4 Museum of Welsh Cricket.
- Glamorgan player appearance at School Assembly linked to citizenship
- Tickets to a Glamorgan Cricket match

"Our pupils and staff can hardly wait to be part of such an important global sporting event and we are looking forward to sharing this with other schools across Wales. We hope that through the project, the children will develop a passion for cricket whilst creating a lasting legacy"

Liz Berry, Deputy Head, Thornhill Primary School

The eyes of the world will be on Wales this summer as the Ashes comes to Cardiff. Cricket can ignite new passions, teach vital skills, promote inclusion, and inspire young people.

If your school want to use the power of cricket then Glamorgan Cricket & Cricket Wales will tailor a package for you.

All of the offers are conducted by qualified coaches and personnel and are FREE OF CHARGE.
